“Manager for one day” Initiative

18 March 2008

Student’s Impressions

„The day I spent in Musala Soft was very interesting. I had the opportunity to see how the departments work, and to learn more about the company’s activities. The experience, I have gained, was intriguing and very helpful.” – Boris Kotsev, student in the National High School in Finance and Business (NHSFB), Sofia

„Today I have learned many interesting things that I consider to be very helpful for me in the future. I think that this initiative is quite useful for young people, in order for them to choose their own way in life.” – Vanio Paunov, 164th Spanish Secondary School "Miguel de Cervantes", Sofia

„My impressions from “Manager for one day” are definitely positive. I did not expect it to be so interesting and entertaining. I have learned a lot of things that can be very helpful for me in the future.” – Joanna Bogasheva, Professional High-School of Economics “Ivan Iliev” – Blagoevgrad

„I was very impressed with the company. Its organization, structure and work processes. I consider my participation in “Manager for one day” initiative to be interesting, inspiring and of a great use. This event exceeded my expectations; it was quite a dynamic and interesting day. My desire to work in the field of my interests was confirmed.” – Tihomir Nedev, PMG "Nikola Obreshkov", Kazanlak

„I study computer technologies and systems, and I’m interested in indoor design and advertisement. The day was very intriguing and useful. I partially realized what my future holds for me.” – Sara Shishkova, Professional High-School of Computer Systems and Technologies, Pravets
